Summary: I've tried to portray how to train your dragon in Taylor Swift's Love story. I don't own how to train your dragon and love story.

Trust Story

TRUST STORY

It was night when I first saw you.

I closed my eyes, and then I shot,

You got hurt; you fell in the woods on the ground.

Next day when I came to see you,

And then I tried to kill you,

But I couldn't kill,

I made you free.

You were helpless, and I felt sad,

But my Daddy said you have to kill them,

But I couldn't, I explained him a of number of times,

And I saidâ€|

Toothless let's go, somewhere we can be alone,

I'll get your tail now; all that's left to do is run,

You be the dragon, I'll be the rider,

It's a trust story,
Fury just say, yes.
So I sneak out in the noons to see you,
We keep quiet cause we're dead if they knew,
So trust in me, always, at all times.
Cause you're a dragon, I'm a chief's son,
And I'm doing what is not to be done,
But what could I do now,
As you were my friend.
And I saidâ€|
Toothless let's go, somewhere we can be alone,
I'll get the fish and, all that's left to do is run,
You be the dragon, I'll be the rider,
It's a trust story,
Fury just say, yes.
Toothless let's go, you're my first friend, do you know,
Your tail is difficult but I'm trying,
Don't worry, everything's gonna be fine,
It's a trust story,
Fury just say yes.
Oh oh oh.
My dad has now seen you,
He is gonna take you to the island of death,
I tried to stop him,
But that made matters worse, that's it,
And I saidâ€|..
No matter what happens, I'll save you,
Stay with me bud, we can defeat it, you'll see,
And we killed it.
Finally we won, and everything was fine now,

Dad kept you and that's what I really want,
Berk is happy, all cause you saved me,
It's a trust story,
Fury just say yes.

Oh oh oh.

I lost my leg, but now I got you.

Hope you liked it.
